

Okavango Crossing

Car Boot Sale: Terms and Conditions

1. Event Registration: All vendors participating in the car boot sale must register in advance via the Car Boot Sale WhatsApp Group or with Jasmin (076 388 2304). All vendors should adhere to good thrift-Manship, we will not tolerate unethical behaviour. No reselling of fellow vendors' goods will be allowed. We reserve the right to remove any vendor from the premises who does not adhere to these rules and guidelines.
2. Booth Allocation: Booth allocation will be determined by the coordinator, Laretha Blom, on the day of the event to vendors. Vendors must adhere to their assigned booth location and size.
3. Setup and Takedown: Vendors are responsible for setting up and dismantling their booths within the specified timeframes provided by Okavango Crossing. Booth setup must be completed at 9 am of the commencement of the car boot sale, and vendors must ensure their booths are dismantled promptly after the event.
4. Product Restrictions: Vendors are not allowed to sell any products in direct competition with our tenants at Okavango Crossing. For example, no dried fruit and nuts as we do have a Montagu. Please also, no food to be prepared on the premises.
5. Cleanliness and Safety: Vendors must maintain a clean and safe booth environment throughout the event. Vendors are responsible for the removal of any waste or debris generated by their booth. There will be NO consumption of alcohol within the trading hours of the Car Boot Sale.
6. Insurance and Liability: Vendors participating in the car boot sale at their own risk. Okavango Crossing or their staff, is not liable for any loss, damage, or injury that may occur during the event.
7. Payment and Fees: Vendors are responsible for paying any applicable fees or commissions associated with participating in the car boot sale on the day to Laretha Blom.
8. Compliance with Rules: Vendors must comply with all rules and regulations set forth by Okavango Crossing. Failure to adhere to these terms and conditions may result in the removal of the vendor from the event.
9. Cancellation Policy: In the event of unforeseen circumstances or inclement weather, Okavango Crossing reserves the right to cancel or reschedule the car boot sale. Vendors will be notified of any changes as soon as possible.
10. Governing Law: These terms and conditions shall be governed by and construed under the laws of the jurisdiction. Any disputes arising out of or relating to these terms and conditions shall be subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of [Jurisdiction].

By participating in the car boot sale, vendors acknowledge that they have read, understood, and agree to abide by these terms and conditions.

If you have any questions, you can contact Jasmin Pena at jasmin@word4word.co.za / 076 388 2304